From Architect's Desk: Venu Gopal

Where Architecture Meets
Real World Challenges

Taj, Lalit Bagh, Udaipur

The Challenge

- © Architect Venu Gopal envisioned Taj Lalit Bagh, Udaipur, as a destination where every surface would reflect timeless luxury.
- © Natural Stone was central to that vision. He aimed to preserve the authenticity of the marble while ensuring every space exuded the flawless detailing expected of a world-class luxury hotel.

The Solution

- © Every surface was treated to retain its character while elevating its visual appeal. Subtle interventions helped address naturally occurring cracks without disturbing the stone's inherent elegance, allowing the design intent to remain uncompromised.
- © RachTR Top Fill blended seamlessly to restore continuity, while RachTR Stone Power brought out the marble's depth and lasting brilliance.
